

Corporate Services

Reflective practice, staff wellbeing and relational support

Corporate services

Terapija.care offers reflective and relational support for organisations, teams and staff wellbeing. Services are arranged by enquiry and agreement.

Reflective practice Structured spaces for teams whose work involves responsibility, care, contact and emotional demand.	Workplace therapy agreements Therapy arrangements shaped with clear boundaries around confidentiality and organisational communication.
On the Floor Relational Coaching Support for real workplace patterns, role clarity, communication, relational strain and team contact.	Staff wellbeing and relational support Support around burnout, inclusion, boundaries, neurodiversity affirming awareness and LGBTIQ+ affirmative practice.

How the work is held

Corporate work is shaped around the needs of the organisation while protecting the integrity of therapeutic and reflective spaces.

When Terapija.care works with organisations, therapy content, personal disclosures and clinical details remain confidential and separate from employer or manager communication.
